Parents and friends of the Niles Cubs are invited to attend a moving picture on Cubbing to be shown next Monday evening, at 8 o'clock in the Niles Grammar school auditorium by C. B. Lamkin of Hayward, Scout Executive of this area. The Cub committee especially desires a good attendance, according to Clem Donovan, Cubmaster at Niles.

A, B & C CARD HOLDERS MAY GET NEW TIRES NOW

SAN FRANCISCO — All motorists seeking either new or used tires still are required to obtain ration certificates from their local war price and rationing board before dealers can sell them tires of any type, the San Francisco District OPA emphasized today.

A change in eligibility requirements which became effective on Monday does not in any way ease the rationing of tires themselves, District OPA rationing chief Paul I. Nederman pointed out in answer to many inquiries.

Eligibility requirements were broadened May first to allow all motorists using their cars for occupational driving — 'B" and "C" drivers — to apply to local boards for new tires. Heretofore, only motorists in the most essential occupations — "C" bookholders have been eligible to apply for certificates for new tires. However, boards will be bound by their quota of new tires, and to remain within these limits they will have to make their allocations on the basis of the most essential of the applicants.

The San Francisco District Office will have a quota of 14,491 new tires to ration among "B" and 'C" motorists in 16 Northern California counties during May as compared to 10,395 in April for only "C" bookholders.

Effective Monday "A" bookholders were eligible for grade three used tires. For the first time since the start of rationing these used passenger tires will be "out of quota" because of the extreme shortage of stocks. This means that local boards will issue ration certificates for used tires to all "A" bookholders needing the tires as long as the board believes there are some used tires available in their area. In localities where there are no used tires, boards will not issue ration certificates.

AUNT OF MRS. EPH L. MUSICK DIES IN DECOTO

DECOTO—Mrs. Harriet Gruenwald, 89, the first white woman to settle in Brown County, South Dakota, died at the home of her niece, Mrs. Eph Musick of Decoto and was buried at Long Beach on April 26.

Mrs. Gruenwald had resided with Mr. and Mrs. Musick for the past four years and in California since 1902. She was a native of Wisconsin, born in 1855, and at the age of 17 drove a team of horses into South Dakota before there were any roads, and homesteaded a piece of land with her brother, William Young. She was married to August Gruenwald, furnace maker in Omaha in 1879, and came with him to California, residing at Santa Cruz, San Diego and Long Beach. They had no children.

In addition to Mrs. Musick, she is survived by other nieces and nephews, Ray Macaulay of Davenport, T. R. Macaulay of Ventura, Bessie Buck of Hanford, Jessie Howard of Medford, Oregon, and Donald Young of Portland. Her keenest interest was in politics, having registered as an independent and voted with the first women to be given the ballot in California. Mrs. Musick accompanied the body to Long Beach.

LIBRARY ASSOCIATION SUSPENDED DURING WAR

The Niles Library Association, organized about 50 years ago, has voted not to dissolve but to adjourn without officers for the duration.

At a meeting held here last Thursday, J. C. Shinn was named temporary chairman and Mrs. F. V. Jones, secretary. Mrs. Roland Bendel, treasurer, reported a balance of $4.94, this amount being voted as a gift to the Niles troop of Boy Scouts. Any three members of the organization may call for an election of officers at any future date.

GRANDMOTHER'S BOND WITH THE FUTURE -WAR BONDS

EMBLEM OF THE GRANDMOTHERS LEAGUE

WASHINGTON, D. C.: "Grandmother's Bond with the Future—War Bonds" is the slogan of the Treasury's new campaign urging grandparents to buy Bonds and stamps for their grandchildren. The official emblem is the old-fashioned sampler reproduced above.

The Grandmothers League was founded by Mrs. George C. Marshall, wife of the Army Chief-of-Staff, who bought Bonds from Secretary Morgenthau for her three grandchildren. Mrs. Marshall suggests that grandparents insure their grandchildren's future by buying Bonds or starting stamp albums for them.

Point Rationing Eased!

American housewives were overjoyed Wednesday morning to learn first from excited radio newscasters, then from their daily newspapers, that point rationing of foods had been almost entirely suspended, effective at midnight that night.

All meats had been removed from rationing with the exception of beef roast and the better cuts of beef. All canned goods, with the exception of canned milk were relieved from rationing. Canned peas and corn which a year ago were restricted with the highest number of points now may be purchased without points.

Only butter, reduced recently from 16 to 12 points per pound; margerine, cheese and cheese products will require red points through the summer.

The new OPA order makes 85 percent of all meats ration-free However, the validating of red points per person has been changed from 30 red points per person every two weeks to 30 red points per person every four weeks. This reduction will occasion no hardship, however as red points are now required only for beef steaks, roast beef, butter, margerine and cheese. Blue points will be needed only for canned milk.

The government announced that enormous stocks of meat and canned goods had accumulated, and unless the livestock situation, changes for the worse during the summer, rationing for the American public is practically at an end.

-And this on the eve of Invasion!

LIVEWEIGHT PRICES ON HOGS TO BE REDUCED MAY 15

San Francisco — Present ceiling prices on hogs weighing more than 240 pounds live weight will be reduced to 75 cents per hundred-weight on and after May 15 1944, the Office of Price Administration announced today. No change will be made in the ceiling prices of hogs weighing 240 pounds or less.

Chicago ceiling price on hogs weighing more than 240 pounds is $14 75 per hundredweight at present. The action will reduce this price to $14 per hundred-weight.

The decision to reduce prices of heavyweight hogs was taken with the concurrence of the War Food Administration, the War Production Board and the Office of Economic Stabilization and is designed to discourage the use of corn and other essential grains in bringing hogs up to heavy, uneconomical weights.

During the last few years there has been an extraordinary expansion in livestock production. The greatest expansion has occured in hogs. The total pig crop, estimated by the United States Department of Agriculture at 79,840,000 head in 1941, increased to 121,847,000 head in 1943. One of the prime factors behind this expansion has been the profitable relationship between prices for livestock and prices for feed.

PRICES SET FOR BERRIES AVERAGE $6.51 PER CRATE

Ceiling prices for fresh strawberries were established today by the Office of Price Administration at levels which will keep retail prices about where they were in 1943. Strawberries are given a retail mark-up of 34 per cent under the retail "fixed mark-up" regulations.

Under the new ceilings, which was effective April 27, growers will receive approximately the 1943 national average farm price of $6.51 per 24-quart crate. Allowance for costs of hauling, loading pre-cooling, inspection and selling, and provision of a "cushion" to cover differences for season, grade and variety, results in an average price for the season, F.O B. the country shipper, of $8.14 for a 24-quart crate.

The F.O.B. prices established for California F.O.B. country shipper are: Entire Season, Pint, 20 cents; Quart, 39 cents; Pound, 26½ cents.

COUNTY TEACHERS ASK FOR RAISES IN SALARIES

CENTERVILLE—Salary increases to meet the wartime cost of living are being asked by teachers of Southern Alameda County in letters sent to trustees by the salary committee of the Southern Alameda County Teachers Association.

According to statistics compiled by the Department of Education of Stanford University, 39 per cent of the elementary districts of Alameda County paid no teacher more than $1620 per year. This figure's purchasing power is set by the Stanford survey at $1070 as compared to that of three years ago, or $87.50 per month.

Many teachers have been attempting to support families on this basis, Mrs. Jeanette Schaaf, Decoto teacher and chairman of the county teachers salary committee, points out in preparing the petition. Working with her are Tom Maloney, principal of the Centerville Grammar School and Jack Prouty, principal of the Pleasanton Grammar School.

Increases asked in letters sent to 42 trustee boards specify a minimum of $1980 or $165 per month for elementary schools and $2000 annually for high school teachers with some increase for teachers in the higher salary brackets.

The letter to the trustees points out that many experienced teachers are leaving the profession because of inadequate salaries. This, the teachers claim, in the last analysis is depriving children of efficient instructors and leaders, If persons of high caliber, certificated according to California requirements are to be kept in the schools, salaries must be in keeping with living costs, the letter claims.

MORTAR & PESTLE

David Rosekrans has on display in the window of "Bill's Place" in Niles a perfect specimen of an Indian mortar and pestle, found recently by Henry Hibner, dragline operator for the Pacific Coast Aggregates company at Niles. The objects were uncovered 40 feet under ground in the gravel pit at the foot of Eye street. The two stone objects are made of different types of stone, the pestle looking more like granite than the country rock found in the low country.

HEART ATTACK TAKES LIFE OF MRS. S. MENZIES

Niles residents were saddened on Saturday when they learned that Mrs. Stella Menzies, 47, of 208 H street in Niles had suffered a heart attack about 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The Centerville Fire Department respirator was sent for, but the efforts of the operators to revive her proved unavailing, and she died shortly after the arrival of Dr. L. H. Buehler, Niles physician.

She had been her usual cheery self that morning and remarked to a friend that she had "never felt better." An autopsy disclosed a rheumatic heart condition of which she had not been aware.

Reverend D. Q. Grabill conducted the last rites at the Berge Mortuary in Niles Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and interment was made in the Oak Hill cemetery in San Jose.

She issurvived by her husband, Jesse; twin daughters, June and Jean and three sons, Gilbert, Lloyd and Wilburn; also three sisters, Mrs. Blanche Lawrence, Mrs. Raymond Adams and Mrs. Claris Weston. She was a native of Everton, Missouri, and had lived here for eight years.

REGISTERS TO BE PUBLISHED DAY LATER HEREAFTER

Niles subscribers to the Township Register will receive their weekly copies on Fridays hereafter, instead of Thursday, by reason of the fact that the "mats" from which the Safeway ads are made each week, will not be in our hands hereafter until Thursday mornings, instead of Tuesday mornings as heretofore.

Under the schedule which we have followed for the past year the Safeway mats, which represent the most important advertisement in our weekly issues, arrived Tuesday morning, to be "cast" into metal blocks Tuesday afternoon, permitting us to go to press Wednesday afternoons late; hand fold and address Thursday mornings and be in the mails Thursday afternoons before 2.

Under the new schedule, these mats arrive here Thursday mornings about 9, are cast and the paper put to press before noon, leaving the folding and mailing to be done Thursday afternoons. If the entire edition can be finished and in the mail at Niles before 6 p m. Thursdays Niles subscribers will have their copies first thing Friday morning and subscribers in other communities some time through the day Friday. Folding takes three hours and stamping out the individual copies takes two persons another three hours.

Sorry, but that's the best we can do. The Editor.

She was the sister of Richard Leal, seaman 1c, U.S.N., San Diego, and was a native of Irvington, where she had lived most of her life.

SUNDAY IS OLD PAPER COLLECTION DAY AT NILES

This Sunday after Church the Niles Boy Scout troop, supervised by Scoutmaster Fred Duffie, Committeeman Lewis Lewis and others will pick up private and business donations of old newspapers, magazines and cardboard accumulations.

Householders are asked to tie their newspapers and magazines separately with cords or ropes and place them on the curbs outside their homes. Scrap cardboard, flattened out may be placed in cartons on the curb along with papers. If business houses having donations to make will call Mr. Duffie at Niles 4506 or Mr. Lewis at Niles 4567 at once, special arrangements will be made to pick up what they have.

With $117 cash in their treasury from the February drive, and with an estimated six tons already stored in the Scouthouse at Niles, the Niles Scout Troop is well on its way towards building up a cash reserve for their own use, while conducting a highly patriotic service for Uncle Sam — and for local citizens, Duffie says.

SAFEWAY
Homemakers' Guide

Julia asks
Have you tried these homemaking ideas?

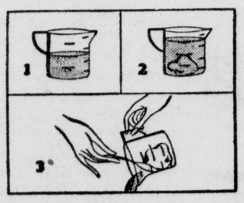
THE OTHER DAY I was browsing through my files—just looking for answers to questions—and I came across some that appealed to me as having a special interest. I jotted them down right away, thinking you might be able to make use of them too.

For example, I searched for a simple answer to the question, "Why does the lower crust of pie turn out soggy?" Here it is: If the oven is not hot enough (450° F.) when the pie is first put in, the bottom crust does not set quickly and becomes soaked with pie juices.

And someone wanted to know how to make Fluffy French Toast. It's an exciting delicacy: Allow one egg, 1 tablespoon milk, and one thick slice of bread per person; beat egg whites and yolks separately, adding milk and seasonings to yolks; fold well-beaten yolks into stiffly beaten egg whites; dip slices of the bread into the mixture and fry in deep fat (360° to 375° F.) the same as doughnuts; serve immediately with syrup and crisp bacon.

And another had said, "My recipe calls for shortening and butter—what can I substitute?" For one cup, you can substitute one cup of margarine, or ⅞ cup of lard, or oil, or bacon fat.

And—"How do I measure shortening accurately, so there's no waste?" That's easy. Just follow these drawings:



(1. measuring cup filled with water to ½-cup level
2. solid shortening added so water is at ¾-cup level
3. water poured off, with spoon holding shortening)

The example given there is for ¼ cup (4 tablespoonfuls) of shortening, but it can obviously be adapted to any standard measurement.

Another question was, "What should I use in place of a pastry blender—because I haven't one?" Well, here are two practical substitutes: use a wire potato masher, or work two knives crosswise.

"Chocolate," said another correspondent, "is my worry—what can I use in place of it?" For a 1-oz. cake, you can substitute ¼ cup of cocoa plus 1 tbsp. shortening; or ¼ cup of ground chocolate.

Finally, here's an old-fashioned answer to the question, "What should I use if I have no cookie sheet?": Use the back of any baking pan.

SCHOOL PUPILS TO PRACTICE FOR PENTATHLON

Pupils of 32 elementary schools in Southern Alameda County will begin their annual penthathlon this week under the direction of the office of County Superintendent Vaughn Seidel and Guy Householder in charge of physical education.

Due to transportation conditions the achievement contests will be largely within the schools individually, smaller schools in some cases having been grouped. The contests, staged according to height and weight of pupils include push ups, pull ups, sit ups, broad jumps, soccer ball throw distance, basketball throw for goal, jump and reach, leap and jump. Ribbons will be awarded to the three highest in each of the 18 groups.

The program is leading up to a county wide contest and play day in which county champions will be declared, Householder says. This will occur when travel restrictions are removed. The project is designed to supplement the 20 minutes per day of physical education required by law and in many respects conforms to the body-building program required by the military in base training for service. Boys and girls of the fifth grade through the eighth grades are included.

Winners in the various groups will be announced after scores are computed.

NAME DELEGATES TO SPECIAL SESSION OF LEGISLATURE

At a meeting of the directors of the Alameda County Teachers Association held in Hayward, April 25, two legislative representatives and two alternates were chosen to attend the special session of the Legislature when it is convened sometime in May.

Selected were Mrs. Jeanette Schaaf, vice principal of Decoto Elementary School, and Jack D. Rees, vice principal of Washington Union High School at Centerville. Their alternates are Mrs. Helen Silver, science instructor at Hayward Union High School, and Jack Prouty, principal of the elementary school at Pleasanton.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

CRAEMER OBJECTS TO DOWNEY PLAN OF GOVERNMENT

SAN FRANCISCO — A proposal by U. S. Senator Sheridan Downey during an address at the Jackson Day Democratic Dinner here, that the American form of government be changed, on the ground that it hasn't functioned properly during the war-time emergency, was sharply condemned by Justus Craemer, one of Downey's major opponents at the forthcoming May primary.

"It is characteristic of Senator Downey's unrealistic attitude," said Craemer, "that he should blame our system of government for failures and abuses which are the result of maladministration of government.

"If Senator Downey has been correctly quoted by those who heard his remarks at the Jackson Day Dinner, he said that our system of government hasn't measured up adequately during the war emergency—and that it should be changed to bring the administrative and legislative branches closer together. I am told that he advocated a form of government patterned somewhat after the British system, with the members of the Presidnt's cabinet sitting as members of Congress.

"I do not wish anything I say to be construed as critical of the British form of government. It is a good system for Great Britain. Whether it would be a good system for the United States is entirely another matter.

"Basically, however, the fallacy in Senator Downey's proposal is that he is seeking a rubber stamp Congress, subservient to the Administration. That the American people do not want and will not tolerate. They have shown that very clearly by retiring rubber-stamp congressman and senators at recent elections, just as Senator Downey will likely face retirement this year because the pople are dissatisfied with his failure to come to grips with practical problems.

"Mr. Downey, a few years ago, wanted California to change to the EPIC form of government advocated by the Socialist author, Upton Sinclair. Next year, he may want still another form of government. But the American people want the American form of government—properly administered—and I believe it is about time that we gave our own system a fair trial."

DRIVERS MUST PASTE ON THEIR LICENSE STICKERS

Motor vehicle owners of Washington Township today were admonished by Gordon H. Garland, Director of the Department of Motor Vehicles, to paste their 1944 Registration Stickers on their windshields as soon as they receive them.

Director Garland said this is necessary for the protection of the motorists themselves as members of the California High way Patrol will shortly begin stopping all vehicles not displaying the stickers.

Approximately 2,300,000 stickers have been mailed out to the motorists of the state, he announced. It is expected that the remainder will have been cleared by April 15th.

REPUBLICAN WOMEN

The Washington Township Branch of the California Council of Republican Women will hold a meeting at the home of Mrs. E. A. Ellsworth on Friday, May 12th at 2:00 P.M. Mrs. Peter J. Audichou of Oakland—an active Club member will be the speaker—All friends, Democratic or Republican, are invited to attend. Tea will be served.

CRAEMER LOOKS LIKE "GOOD MEDICINE" FOR CALIFORNIA!

Mrs. Louise Marks, Republican leader and known throughout California for her devotion to civic betterment has been named chairman of the Berkeley group supporting Justus F Craemer for the United States Senate, it was announced today by Craemer's Alameda County Campaign Headquarters.

When notified of her appointment Mrs. Marks said: "Justus Craemer, publisher, orchardist, and member of the State Railroad Commission has won the endorsement of the powerful San Francisco Civic League of Improvement Clubs and Associations. In addition to this group Mr. Craemer will also have the support of many other civic organizations throughout the state.

"I am giving my unqualified support to Justus Craemer because I feel that his long record of service, loyalty and accomplishment in state affairs has won the confidence of all people regardless of political affiliations."

MILLER FILES AS DEMOCRAT FOR CONGRESS POST

George P. Miller, candidate for Congress from the 6th district, has been endorsed by the Alameda Democratic County central committee. This action, taken at a recent meeting came out of the fact that Miller is the only registered Democrat running for this office.

"The California Election Code makes no provision for showing the party affiliation of a candidate on the primary ballot, said Patrick McDonough, chairman of the committee." Voters become confused and where candidates are cross-filed such as Mr. Millers opponent, they are apt to vote for a Republican thinking they are voting for a Democrat. In endorsing George P. Miller, the committee took into consideration the splendid record he made as a member of the California Legislature where he fought for the adoption of liberal, progressive legislation, it also recognized his ability as a public official when it recognized the job he has done as Executive Secretary of the California Division of Fish and Game in guiding a $2,-000,000 independent state agency through the war period."

Miller is a native of San Francisco and was educated in Sacramento and Oakland. He is a graduate of St. Mary's College in civil engineering. Miller served in the 346th Field Artillery, 81st Division in world war one and was later connected with the U. S. Veteran's Administration where he learned the problems of the wounded and disabled from experience.

Miller is endorsed by many democratic clubs and groups of labor.

Department officials believe large numbers of vehicle owners have received their stickers but have neglected to paste them on their windshields as instructed. The stickers will be displayed as evidence of registration renewal in lieu of license plates.

If you are a dog lover here is something new you can worry about: many folks who give their K-9s to war work move while their kiyis are in service. When the dog is discharged the Army cannot find its rightful owner and cannot give the animal to anyone else. So the dog becomes an orphan and a charge on the government.

Parties donating dogs are asked to keep the Army K-9 Corps notified of any changes of residence. Yip! Yip!

S'funny how popular songs mark periods of time in your mind. . Thirty years ago it was Victor Herbert's light opera tunes, "Blue Bell" and such. Twenty years ago it was World War Songs like Long, Long, Trail, Keep the Home Fires Burning, Over There, Yes, We Have No Bananas, Mother, etc.

Before Pearl Harbor it was Deep in the Heart of Texas; after Pearl Harbor, Remember Pearl Harbor, Any Bonds Today?, Praise The Lord and Pass the Hardware. Then came White Christmas, O, What a Beautiful Morning. Now its Mairzy-doates (really "Mares Eat Oats"); let's hope Victory paens will be next!

CALIFORNIA NEEDS CRAEMER

California is in vital need of a new United States Senator to replace the visionary and unpredictable Sheridan Downey. On that point, we believe, most thinkig people are agreed.

We are fortunate, under the circumstances, that we have a man of the caliber of Justus Craemer available for the office. Mr. Craemer, publisher of the Orange Daily News, member of the State Railroad Commission, and one of California's most distinguished citizens, has both the experience and the ability for the job. He has unquestioned integrity and unbounded energy; he will make a great fighter for California.

If he is nominated, Mr. Craemer can defeat Downey. He is the strongest possible candidate—and he will make the best Senator. Let's put our best man forward—and elect Craemer as our U. S. Senator.

HAVE A HEART!

Voters who are reluctant to see anybody but President, our "Perennial President" occupying the White House until the war is won, should realize that our generals and admirals are planning the war which our own flesh and blood are fighting; all FDR — or any other president, for the matter of that — does as Commander in Chief is to O. K. their plans.

Changing presidents during the middle of a war would have no effect whatever on our military strategy, which is now complete and about ready to be put into full operation.

Our next president does not take office until January 20, 1945. . and by that time Germany should be very much under the domination of the United Nations, (we hope, we hope.)

Have pity on poor ole FDR who has packed the terrible responsibility of the Presidency for lo! these 12 full years — and it is a burden which has heretofore killed most of his predecessors, except Hoover, in a mere four years. Why not retire him to his handsome estate at Hyde Park and let the overworked man have a well-earned rest?? — WW

THE WAR PLANT SEIZURE

The seizure by the government of Montgomery Ward's head office in Chicago last week because of their non-compliance with NLRB rulnigs was a high-handed and un-American thing to do. The plant was NOT engaged in war work and as such did not properly come under the jurisdiction of the government.

On the one hand we have the law, which must be obeyed; on the other the American right of free enterprise. In this case, the latter is the more important consideration.

Just as the infamous NRA cracked up and broke when Henry Ford single-handedly defied the President's fiat, and the NRA Administrator, the late General Hugh Johnson hesitated and failed to "crack down", similarly the present Ward company's defiance of the government's right to meddle in ALL business may be the turning point in the governments overzealous effort to keep everything 'under control".

War or no war: private citizens not liable for military duty have inviolable rights of sanctity of person and property under the constitution, and these sacred rights in this case have been abrogated.—W. W.

A CALL FOR COURAGE

The forthcoming invasion of Europe is as near to me as though it were to take place just off the Golden Gate. You see - a smiling-faced boy who a year ago ran my linotype for me, will be in it with a Field Hospital unit; and so will about a million other smiling-faced boys be seeing sights best left unseen and experiencing horrors which should be spared young men at this stage of civilization's history.

Their fine, manly bodies offered as innocent, living sacrifices to the lust and greed of a power-mad dictator, who sought "living room" for his people.

I wouldn't give him the celebrated "standing room in hell"!

GRAND NEWS!

There was grand news on the home front Wednesday morning. Radio announcers stumbled all over themselves with excitement when they first broke the flash that ALL meats, with the exception of beef, were to be freed of red point rationing at midnight Wednesday.

And that was not all. All groceries were to be freed of red point rationing, effective the same date, except butter, margerine and canned milk.

This will reduce a lot of work for patient butchers and grocers and will relieve Madame Housewife of quite a lot of bother. Reason for the release was given that enormous supplies had accumulated in government warehouses to the point where foodstuffs were spoiling; that lend-lease commitments had been met and huge surpluses had accumulated.

So those who produce the food can pat themselves on the back and receive a hearty "well done!". The rest of us can heave a sigh of relief, too.

(Now if gasoline . . ? ? But why bring that up?) W.W.

FRESNO TO PRAY AS INVASION OPENS

FRESNO — All Episcopal Churches throughout the San Joaquin diocese will be opened for public prayer the moment Allied troops open the invasion of Europe, Bishop Sumner F. D. Walters announced today.

DO YOU WANT YOUR DOG RETURNED??

Lieutenant S. R. Kelsey, Animal Officer at San Carlos War Dog and Reception Center, asks us to publish the following: "Owners who have donated dogs to the Armed Forces, please notify Dogs for Defense, 750 Eddy Street, San Francisco of any change of address in order that they can be contacted in regards to their dogs."

This request is made because of the fact that several hundred dogs are receiving honorable discharges. The army finds that many owners move without notifying Dogs for Defense or the army of their change of address. Consequently, dogs which are supposed to go home can't go home because the army doesn't know where its home is.

TOWNSHIP TERMED LOCAL 'WHITE SPOT' IN DELINQUENCY

CENTERVILLE — Washington Township is still the "white spot" in the unincorporated areas of southern Alameda County with regard to juvenile delinquency, Howard Ohmart, Juvenile probation officer, told the Co-ordinating Council of last week's meeting. Only 43 cases have been referred to his office during the past 13 months and of these only 23 remain active.

Efforts are being made, however Ohmart said, by his office, Sheriff H. P. Gleason, Boy Scout officials, and interested citizens to set up a recreation program which will insure continuation of the district's good record. Deputy Sheriff Carl Degnan, assigned by Sheriff Gleason to assist, and a former member of the Berkeley Recreation Department, was a guest at the council luncheon.

NEW EGG SLOGAN "STORE THREE DOZEN" EGGS THIS WEEK!

SAN FRANCISCO — With the San Francisco Bay Area "eat more eggs" campaign sweeping into its final phase, Jos. C. Eyring, area supervisor of the War Food Administration's Office of Distribution, today urged patriotic homemakers to keep a constant supply of three dozen eggs in their refrigerators.

"Farm fresh eggs are now at their peak of goodness and response to our appeal to 'buy an extra dozen' has certainly helped absorb the record supplies arriving at market," said Eyring. "However, if during the next three weeks every homemaker, who has a refrigerator, will keep a working supply of three dozen eggs on hand it will relieve a critical storage situation at just the right time."

Lauding "that loyal soldier of production, the hen, "Eyring pointed out that to assure a fresh egg supply for the low-production months ahead, farmers must be encouraged to keep their flocks intact by being able to sell present temporary abundant production at fair prices.

Eyring stated that because consumers, the egg industry, and retailers have cooperated so splendidly thus far in the campaign, egg supplies for both military and civilians in the months to come should be adequate, if not better than last year.

The FARMERS CORNER

by RALPH H. TAYLOR

Executive Secretary Agricultural Council of California

There is one fundamental flaw in the whole government program of food rationing, price subsidies and price roll-backs which has been apparent to producers from the start, and which is now becoming clearly evident to consumers, but which apparently isn't yet recognized or understood by either the Roosevelt Administration or Congress.

The basic weakness in the government program is that the government is doing little or nothing to prevent a food shortage—but is simply trying to administer shortage!

By artifically rolling back food prices, the Administration apparently believes that it can placate labor—and labor's wife and guard against losing their votes when election day rolls around next year. But that policy is just as unsound politically as it is economically, for one of the consequences of this short-sighted program is that housewives just can't buy the foods they want at any price. And when they can't buy what they need, the fact that the price would be lower if they could buy it isn't very nourishing or satisfying.

The fundamental flaw is that the government failed to heed repeated warnings of farmers that they could not stay in business if their labor was drained away and their costs were permitted to go beyond their capacity to pay. For nearly two years, all responsible farm organizations, farm leaders and farm publications have warned that price ceilings would be meaningless, if there was nothing to clamp the ceiling on—and that dangerous shortages were inevitable unless something was done to stimulate production, instead of stifling it.

At first, the government minimized the danger of a food shortage. Then, recognizing its mistake, it began to prophesy shortages. But it did nothing, at least until it was too late, to prevent the drafting of essential farm workers, it did nothing to prevent war plants from paying double or treble what farmers could pay to get workers. In short, it did nothing to prevent shortages! And unfortunately, it is still doing virtually nothing to cope with this fundamental problem.

The absurdity of the whole topsy turvey business is illustrated by what has happened to the butter you used to put on your bread. When rationing started, butter was listed at 8 points. Butter production fell off, so its ration value was raised to 12 points. Butter production fell off some more, so a month or two ago housewives were notified that a pound of butter would take 16 points—the total allotment of an individual for a week for meat, butter and cooking fats combined! And now butter has become so scarce that most restaurants and hotels don't serve it—and tens of thousands of California homes are forced to use butter substitutes.

The tragedy of that crazy cycle is that it need not have been. Dairymen told the government as long as 18 months ago that they couldn't stay in business and keep up production unless something was done to halt their run-away costs and run-away dairy hands. But nothing was done, and no matter how many points the government may set as the ration value of butter, it can't increase production thereby one single pound.

What has happened to butter happened earlier to meat and is now happening to milk—three of the essntials of American diet! And the consumer is wondering what will be next?

This isn't just a fault-finding article. It is constructive criticism, written in the hope that our food administrators in Washington, or our congressmen, or somebody in authority, will stop trying to ration scarcity—and start trying to encourage adequate production to win the war and feed America.

MINISTERS PLAN TO PROCEED WITH WEEKDAY SCHOOL

LIVERMORE — Reverend William Clawson was host Tuesday morning in the Presbyterian church here to 18 members of the Southern Alameda County Ministerial association. They enjoyed an able address by John R. Rushdoony, Armenian speaker on the Interpretation of the History of Christian Education. He is to be ordained in San Francisco soon to serve an Indian Parish in Nevada where his wife is already working. He is a senior at the San Francisco School of Religion.

Reverend Carl Curlni of the Wayside Chapel here, representing Murray Township, Reverend Carl Peterson of Pleasanton representing that Township and Reverend Jackson L. Webster of Newark, representing Washington Township were named to the executive committee of the Weekday Church School activity, which is now going forward in many communities. Mr. Curlin was named treasurer. The committee is ready to secure a teacher for this undertaking.

It is reported that 850 young people are attending Weekday Church School in Hayward, with more quarters and added teachers now required.

Centerville and Newark Protestant Churches have already voted funds to finance this activity in Washington Township, and are waiting on Niles and other communities to take action on the project which was made possible by a recent action of the state legislature.

His proven business ability, his excellent record as a County official and the faith his constituents have in him were the high lights of this meeting.

The meeting adjourned after declaring that it was the duty of every voter to keep the Supervisorship in such capable hands.

GEO. P. MILLER TO ADDRESS "TOWN MEETING" HERE

CENTERVILLE — Announcing a "Town Meeting" Wednesday, May 10th, at eight o'clock p. m. to be held in Washington Union high school.

Wm. A. Hollander, chairman of the Democratic Sixth Congressional District campaign committee declared "we need a return to the basic American method of public debate in our political campaigns. When candidates emerge from their ivory towers of radio announcements and printed statements to meet the voters in a public forum to be ready and willing to answer their questions, then the so-called apathy of the voters will disappear. An informed electorate is our best guarantee for the preservation of democracy."

Featured speakers at the meeting will be George P. Miller, candidate for Congress, and Honorable Francis Dunn, Jr., member of the California legislature for the 13th assembly district. P. W. McDonough is chairman.
